

Biography

FamilyVision is the family ministry of Gary and Marilyn Lankford, and their children: Lauren, 16, Courtney, 13, Kevin, 12, and John, 8.

The Lankfords have been homeschooling for more than eleven years. In addition to FamilyVision, Gary is the Headmaster of Veritas Academy, a Classical Christian School for homeschool families, where he teaches history (www.veritasacademy.org).

Gary is also the National Director for TeenPact's Public Policy Conference ministry, and for the last three years has served as a TeenPact traveling speaker and conference director in several states. TeenPact (www.teenpact.com) is a national youth ministry.

Gary and Marilyn are the founding Directors of the Westerville Area Homeschool Association (WAHA) a homeschool support group and Co-op (www.wahaohio.com), where Gary teaches Public Speaking, Christian Worldview, and Church History, and Marilyn teaches Drawing and Watercolor.

Gary's previous teaching and ministry experience includes over five years in Campus Crusade for Christ at Ohio State University and Florida State University, two years as Director of Christian Education at a PCA church in Alabama, and many years teaching children's church, youth and adult Sunday school classes, and homeschool co-op classes.

In addition, Gary and Marilyn were previously very active in the pro-life movement and with crisis pregnancy centers. Politically, Gary was the County Chairman for the Republican Party in Gadsden County, Florida, and Marilyn was State Committee Woman. Gary was also a Republican candidate for the State Board of Education in Alabama.

Gary's professional experience includes stints as a major account rep for Harris/3M, as a stockbroker for Dean Witter Reynolds, and most recently as a senior account executive with ICC, a leading consulting services IT firm.

Gary Lankford
FamilyVision
www.familyvision.us
gary@familyvision.us